

MAKING JUSTICE SMARTER WORKSHOP

Wednesday 20 June 2018

Held at the Law Society of Tasmania

28 Murray Street, Hobart

10 am - 12 noon

A free, interactive workshop for Reintegration Puzzle Conference Delegates exploring ideas for what works in terms of building and strengthening criminal justice coalitions advocating for Smarter Justice, with a focus on post-prison reintegration.

Russell Goldflam (Making Justice Work) and Michelle McDonnell (Justice-involved Young People Network and former spokesperson for Smart Justice) will share their insights into what makes an effective coalition and how we can identify priority areas for action and frame our work.

This event is part of the Reintegration Puzzle Conference- Smarter Justice, Safer Communities 20-22 June in Hobart, Australia.

Places are limited. Please contact Michelle McDonnell at michelle.mcdonnell@deakin.edu.au to register.
